NO SHORTCUTS. WORK FOR IT.

Sports Update: Tuesday night the Girls' Track team won their meet against Highland. The girls now have a record of one win and one loss on the season.

Those earning points for Kahler were:

Amanda Blevins- 1st place and Cindy Torres- 2nd place in the hurdles

Chio Oparah- 1st place and Mia Vukas- 3rd place in the 100m dash

Jen Tomasic- 1st place in the 1600 m run

The 4X100 m relay including Chio Oparah, Malak Shurbaji, Kaleigh Benson and Madi Mercer took 1st place.

Maggie Grudzien took 2nd place in the 800 m run.

Madi Mercer took 1st place in the 200 m run.

In the shot put, Cali Smith took 2nd place and Sarah Schoonmaker took 3rd place.

Sarah also took 1st place in the discus followed by Sharon Austin in 2nd place.

Madi Mercer took 1st place in the long jump and Amanda Blevins was 2nd place.

Finally, Amanda Blevins was 2nd and Mia Vukas took 3rd place in the high jump.

This was a total team effort with many girls earning their best time of the young season.

Madi Mercer was the runner of the meet- she took 1st place in all three events she competed in!!

Sarah Schoonmaker and Amanda Blevins also scored in more than one event contributing points toward the win.

Most improved were Elaine Werner and Amanda Smith who both ran great 400 races.

Come out Thursday to the Kahler Corral and cheer on the girls as they compete against Pierce starting at 4:45pm.
