Students: Please make sure you have your student ID at lunch for any extras you may want.

Any 6th, 7th, or 8th grader interested in auditioning for the spring play should attend a call out meeting after school next Tuesday, February 2nd. The meeting will take place in the LGI and will end at 4:15. eLearners can attend via Google Meet. The Meet link will be included in the Daily Announcements on Kahler's website next Monday and Tuesday. Please see Mrs. Palasz or Nurse Holly if you have any questions.

Hey Kahler! It's time for you to guess another Kahler reader. Who likes The Hunger Games, The Outsiders, and The DaVinci Code? This reader had a golden retriever, likes ping pong and golf. Who is it? Make a guess and you could win a new book.

The Student Council Crush Can sale begins on Tuesday 1/26, and ends on Friday 1/29. All sales will take place during advisory classes. A student council rep will have Crush forms available. Crush cans are $1.00 each. Please make sure to completely fill out each form. All proceeds will benefit Riley Children's Hospital.

Crush cans will be distributed during 8th hour on February 12th.

February 5th the LCHS baseball coach will be in the LGI from 8:50-9:10am for any 6th - 8th Grade students interested in playing high school baseball.

Eight grade students who read All the Bright Places, we have our lunchtime book club January 29 (Friday) during eighth grade lunch in the teacher's cafeteria to discuss the book. Bring the book and your lunch and we will share our thoughts about the book.

Any questions? See Mrs. Bloom-Johnson in room 143

The Kahler Student Council American Heart Association Fundraiser begins Tuesday, 1/19. We will collect money and order forms through next Wednesday, 1/27. We are selling t-shirts for a $10.00 donation. Please see your advisory teacher for an order form. Checks and order forms can be turned in to your advisory teacher no later than Wednesday, 1/27. We will have a "Red Out" day in March to support this worthy cause. Students and staff can wear their t-shirts and as much red as possible. A King and Queen of Red will be chosen for each grade level. Bracelets will also be sold in advisory classes during the week for $1.00 each. Thanks for all of your support!!!

Upcoming Dates To Remember:

- February 15th - Presidents Day - No School
