This week is the final week to win a free book! Guess who the Kahler reader is. Go to K Hall and across from Mrs. LBJ's room is a yellow bulletin board where you can guess. This reader works in the front office and has a yorkipoo named Penny. This person also loves the following books: Charlotte's Web, Goodnight Moon, and Harold and the Purple Crayon. Make a guess on who this reader could be by the end of the month, and you could win a book of your choice.

Are you an eighth grader who loves a good murder myster--perfect for fall? Then, stop by LBJ's room for a copy of Truly Devious, the eighth grade lunch club book of the month. The lunchtime book club has been moved to lunch on October 27 to accommodate DC travelers, so join the fun and grab a book even if you didn't participate in September. The club is open to anyone, and you can come any month. It is not an all or nothing club. Have questions? See Mrs. Bloom-Johnson in room 143. (If you want to know more about the book, read below.)

Blingham Academy is a famous private school in Vermont for the brightest thinkers, inventors, and artists. It was founded by Albert Blingham, an early twentieth century tycoon, who wanted to make a wonderful place full of riddles, twisting pathways, and gardens. Shortly after the school opened, his wife and daughter were kidnapped. The only real clue was a mocking riddle listing methods of murder, signed with the frightening pseudonym "Truly, Devious." Years later, Stevie Bell is set to begin her first year at Blingham Academy, and she has an ambitious plan to solve this cold case. But the past has crawled out of its grave: Truly Devious makes a surprise return, and death revisits Blingham Academy.

7th Grade Book Club: Today is our official meeting! If you are buying a lunch, get your lunch and come to the library where we will meet. If you packed a lunch, just come right to the library for lunch. If you still have your copy of Scythe, make sure to bring it with you as all the copies are due. Come join us to talk about this awesome book!
