It is that time again. . .time to guess who the Kahler reader is for the month of February.

The last five books this reader read was Frank Lloyd Wright: A Life, Masterworks of Louis Comfort Tiffany, THE GREATEST, My Own Story. . . by Muhammad Ali, The Art of Making Money: The Story of a Master Counterfeiter. . . and Maus by Art Spiegelman

This person also plans on retiring to Key West, Florida where he'll sell grilled shrimp on the side of the road. He loves to cook and BBQ, has a huge collection of athlete and celebrity autographs, and loves boxing.

Make your guess at the display across from room 143 by Monday afternoon and you could be a winner of a new book of your choosing.

Attention Chess Club Members: Kahler will be hosting the KMS Chess Tournament on Saturday, March 5th, from 9:30-2:30. Be sure to turn in the entry form and fee to Mr. Langlois by Friday, March 4th.

On March 4th, we will celebrate a Red-Out Day by crowning a King & Queen of Red for each grade level. Wear as much RED as you can!

7th grade book club: This month, the book is The House in the Cerulean Sea.

Linus Baker leads a quiet, solitary life. At forty, he lives in a tiny house with a devious cat and his old records. As a Case Worker at the Department in Charge Of Magical Youth, he spends his days overseeing the well-being of children in government-sanctioned orphanages.

When Linus is unexpectedly summoned by Extremely Upper Management he's given a curious and highly classified assignment: travel to Marsyas Island Orphanage, where six dangerous children reside: a gnome, a sprite, a wyvern, an unidentifiable green blob, a were-Pomeranian, and the Antichrist. Linus must set aside his fears and determine whether or not they're likely to bring about the end of days.

	But the children aren't the only secret the island keeps. If this seems like something you'd be interested in, grab a copy of the book from Ms. Rose in the library. On Tuesday, March 29 join us in the library during lunch to eat and discuss the book. Any and all 7th graders are welcome! If you have questions, see Ms. Lambert in room 139.
	 <h2>PBIS</h2> For February, Effort is the focus for Student of the Month. At the end of the month, teachers will nominate those students who have given the most effort EVERY day. One student per grade level will earn $10 Kahler Cash and a $10 gift card (PlayStation, Target, Amazon, or Starbcsuks). All nominees will have their names read in the announcements.
