If you are interested in tennis, High School and Middle School tennis coach Joe Skvarek will be conducting the Lake Central Summer Camp from July 11-14. Please join the 60 plus players who have already signed up. For details visit the Lake Central Website and search for athletic summer camps.

YEARBOOKS FOR SALE

It's not too late to buy a yearbook! Cost is $40 - cash or a check made payable to Kahler Middle School. Bring your payment to Mrs. Knight in the office.

Travel to Scotland, Ireland, London, & Paris in July 2023

Join the International Travel Club and see the world! There are openings for both students and any parents who would like to travel with their child. Students must be 12 years old by June 2023. Here is the link to enroll www.eftours.com/2476256NU. Our last trip to France and Spain was awesome! Here is the link to some highlights from the trip. Questions? Email Mrs. Sena-Lopez lsenlop@lcscmail.com

Do you love to sing? The Kahler Choir is looking for current 6th and 7th grade students who may be interested in joining our groups next school year. Requirements include three concerts, ISSMA contest, a positive attitude, and hard work. We always perform a great variety of music from different genres including pop, Broadway, jazz, holiday, folk, rock, and foreign language. Please see Mrs. Palasz in room 100 for more information.

Band Openings for current 6th & 7th graders!

Due to the pandemic, many students missed the opportunity to learn an instrument. If you are still interested, now is your chance! For current 7th graders there are openings to learn how to play the drums and for current 6th graders there are openings for clarinet, saxophone, & trombone. Instruments will be provided through the school for those students who are interested. See Mrs. Sena-Lopez during advisory this week or email lsenlop@lcscmail.com

Anyone interested in cross country for the next school year, please come by Coach Langlois or Coach Gaines' room for an informational handout and calendar, you can also pick up the handout in the main office. We will be holding summer fun runs. Any student interested in participating in the summer fun runs is welcome.

Hope to see you this summer!!!
