When: Friday 9/23-Sunday 10/2

Be sure to sign-up using the link from your advisory page.

Thank you to everyone who came out to the yearbook callout! We are ecstatic at how many of you showed an interest. Unfortunately, we can only accommodate 40 students. If your advisory teacher gives you a permission slip, you were randomly selected for the 2022 yearbook committee! Please return the signed permission slip NO LATER THAN OCTOBER 4th to either Mrs. Porter (room 122) or Ms. Traficante (room 224). Our first meeting is October 6th at 7:30am in Ms. Traficante's room! Please bring your chromebook. We can't wait to see you there!

Wrestling: There is going to be a callout meeting TODAY for anyone interested or looking for more information in Mr. Pucci's room, 100, during advisory. Come on down to get some more information and prepare for the year!

College Go Week officially starts Monday, September 26th--30th. A good way to get excited about your future is to have a "spirit week" to celebrate College Go Week.

Friday 9/30: " College, Trade School, and Military Rock!" Wear your favorite college/trade school or military shirt

Eight grade book club books are in for the month of OCTOBER. Stop in and see Ms. Rose in the library for copies of Dread Nation by Justina Ireland, a perfect spooky season read featuring zombies. NOTE: This time the lunch time book club will be in the library conference room where the acoustics are far better. Below is a synopsis of what the book is about. If you are interested, pick one up from the library, and we will see you on October 27th.

Jane McKeene was born two days before the dead began to walk the battlefields of Gettysburg, Pennsylvania—derailing the War Between the States and changing the nation forever.

In this new America, safety for all depends on the work of a few, and laws like the Native and Negro Education Act require certain children attend combat schools to learn to put down the dead.

But there are also opportunities—and Jane is studying to become an Attendant, trained in both weaponry and etiquette to protect the well-to-do. It's a chance for a better life for Negro girls like Jane. After all, not even being the daughter of a wealthy white Southern woman could save her from society's expectations.

But that's not a life Jane wants. Almost finished with her education at Miss Preston's School of Combat in Baltimore, Jane is set on returning to her Kentucky home and doesn't pay much mind to the politics of the eastern cities, with their talk of returning America to the glory of its days before the dead rose.

But when families around Baltimore County begin to go missing, Jane is caught in the middle of a conspiracy, one that finds her in a desperate fight for her life against some powerful enemies.

And the restless dead, it would seem, are the least of her problems.

Students and staff - Ms. Rose needs your help!! Take a picture or use an existing one of you reading and drop it off in the library so that it can be added to Ms. Rose's Bookstagram Wall. Get those pictures in and let's help Ms. Rose fill her wall!!

We accumulate an abundance of items throughout the year. Lost and found is located in the cafeteria. Students please check the cafeteria FIRST for any lost items. Anything of value please come see Ms. Liz or Ms. Stacey in the main office. We donate any items during Christmas break, Spring break, and at the end of the school year.
