PROJECT LIT

Students, did you know that every summer students can lose up to 20% of the reading gains they made during the school year? This is known as “summer slide” and Project Lit wants to do something about it! This week language arts teachers will be handing out raffle tickets from Project Lit for anyone who would like to enter their name in a raffle to win a book. Here’s a little sample of two of the book options:

The Girl who Drank the Moon

This is a fantasy about a young girl named Luna who is raised by a kind witch, a friendly swamp monster, and a tiny dragon. Luna was accidentally fed moonlight as a baby, which gave her magical powers. However, in the town of the Unnamed Girl, every year, a baby is left in the forest to "appease" the witch. What the people don't know is that the witch is not evil—she's been protecting the children all along.

As Luna grows, she learns about her powers and the truth about her past. The story is filled with adventure, bravery, and the fight to free people from fear and misunderstanding. It's a tale about love, sacrifice, and the importance of standing up for what's right.

LIBRARY NEWS

Calling all Library Books!

It's that time of year! All Library books are due by Friday, May 23! Parents, check your email as notices are being sent out to parents of students who have extremely late (lost) books. If your student has lost a book, they must replace it by either paying for the book (invoice can be obtained in the Library) or buying the book at the vendor of your choice and turning it into the Library. By now, students who have missing books have been given printed invoices to take home. Students with books on their accounts in the Fall of 2025, will not be able to check out books until their account is settled. Any questions can be directed to Tina Genovese in the Media Center - tgenoves@lcscmail.com. Let's keep our Library books on the shelves so students can enjoy them for years to come!
