CLARK BASKETBALL

Last night your 7th grade boys basketball team took on Lowell and walked away victorious in both games. In game 1, Mason Majewski led the team with 11 points and was on fire from 3 point land. Max Hall followed up with 4 points and defense was led by Brady Stoming and Adam Musleh to help secure the 22-11 victory. In game 2, Caleb Hoogeveen led the team with 8 points followed by Noah Sanchez with 7 points and had stellar defense. Joey Hallett also forced numerous turnovers and helped lead the team to a 24-18 victory. The team is on the road this weekend at the Colonial Wheeler tournament and back home on Tuesday against Pierce. Go Clark!

MATH COUNTS

Do you enjoy math? Do you want to meet new people who also enjoy math? Are you interested in joining the Math Counts team? Math Counts is a competition program for 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students that focuses on learning new math strategies and solving challenging problems.

There will be a Math Counts call-out meeting during Advisory on Tuesday, November 18th, in room 613. If you are unable to attend the call-out meeting, please come see Mrs. Young in room 613 for information anytime next week.

FOOD DRIVE - GIVE WITH GRACE

Students and Staff - Don't forget to bring non-perishable items to donate to our Food Drive, which ends Wednesday, November 19th. Food collected here at Clark will help replenish local food pantries and help those in need. Let's show Clark Cares and Give with Grace the holiday season!

PARENT INFORMATION

Scholastic Book Fair in the Clark Library

Monday, December 1 through Friday, December 5

Mark your calendar—the Scholastic Book Fair is coming to our school! This is a great opportunity to connect with your child over the thrill of bringing home new books to dive into again and again. Studies show that kids read more when they choose books for themselves. And fostering a love of independent reading leads to a wide variety of benefits—including academic success!

Here's everything you need to know about the Book Fair:

Monday, December 1 through Friday, December 5

Your child will be scheduled to attend with their ELA Class

Shopping is safe and easy with the Scholastic eWallet. The eWallet is the easy way for students to shop the Fair cash-free, worry-free, and independently. It's also easy for families to set up from your school's Book Fair homepage , available right now. Cash and Apple Pay are also accepted at the Fair. Below is the link to create an eWallet for your child.

<https://bookfairs.scholastic.com/bf/clarkmiddleschool3>

Family members can add funds with a credit card, use their Scholastic eGift balance, or simply invite others to contribute. Funds are available immediately and additional funds can be added at any time.

Beginning immediately through December 5, families can shop online at the Scholastic Store, using . Clark Library earns 25% of every online purchase in Scholastic Dollars to put new books on our shelves.If you child does not use the full amount of their eWallet at the Fair, you can use it to shop online.

If you have any questions, please contact Tina Genovese in the Clark Library at 365-9203 ext. 7200.

APPLES FOR THE STUDENTS

Educational technology and its funding change daily. To keep up with these changes and their accompanying expenses, our school is participating in our local Strack & Van Til's Apples for the Students Program. The program enables our school to earn computers and Ipads, sporting goods, audio visual equipment, and science supplies, with choices from hundreds of other awards, too! And, they're all free!

To earn these FREE awards, we simply have to collect as many register receipts as possible from September 1, 2025 through March 31, 2026. Ask your friends and relatives to shop at Strack & Van Til Food Market and save every receipt. Send the receipts to school with your students as often as possible. The school will count the value of the register tapes collected and redeem them for great educational awards that benefit your child. Thank you in advance for your participation!
